Draw a sheet over ten chairs to make a tent, bring a book, grab a hula hoop, and go camping!	Think of an activity you do every day. Use tracing paper to trace the words that, next, and try to describe each step in the process.
Pick a category, like animals, and name as many things as you can in one minute. Play again with another category, and try to beat your record!	Go on a sound scavenger hunt. Pick a letter, and try to find objects that begin with that sound, jump rope by making a list of talking objects.	Create a set of letter cards, one card for each uppercase letter and one for the matching lowercase letter. Shuffle the cards and see how fast you can match them all!	Use a card with a letter and a picture. Write each sight word on a hole card. See how quickly you can read them all. Then try to beat your record!	How many syllables, or beats, do you hear when you say your name? Clap your hands for each syllable. Clap out the syllables in the names of friends and family members, too.
Draw a picture of yourself standing next to a book character. Explain to a friend or family member how you and the character are the same and how you are different. Explain the main idea, and tell about three important details.	Pretend to be a character from your favorite book. Draw up to look like that character and talk a voice you think they would use.
Write letters on the ground with chalk. Jump to each letter and say the sound it makes. Then, name a word that begins with that sound!	Show your favorite book with a friend or family member. Show the front cover, the title, the author, and the illustrator. Then, show and describe your favorite page.		Play a game with a friend or family member.
